1	I did not agree or disagree about availability for office hours as I did not use them this semester, and therefore do not know.
2	The instructor has been very supportive, approachable, and excellent at giving feedback. The lectures are captivating and provide a very thorough understanding of the material.
3	I like the class and instructor overall but I feel that for a beginners introduction to philosophy class the topics could be explained in more simpler ways that help someone who knows nothing about philosophy before this class. I know that many other people in the class also find some of the topics confusing and I just wish that we could build up more to the more complicated terms and topics we explored instead of diving right in. I also think the class could use more engagement and discussions in the seminar. This all said I do like the instructor and just think the class needs a little tweaking
4	Elena is by far one of the best teachers i've had. she is kind, caring and encourages class discussions throughout every class. she cares deeply for philosophy and i can see her passion while teaching the subject, i appreciate that she keeps her personal beliefs/opinions out of the class discussion, further encouraging us to find our own answers and beliefs on the subject. though it is a difficult course load, Elena makes it fun and interesting. i would love to take some other courses with her in the future. overall wonderful person, wonderful professor
5	A really hard working and passionate professor. Slides and lectures are very detailed, you can tell Dr. Holmgren puts alot of work into her course curriculum.
6	Elena is an excellent professor she encourages student participation and discourse between the class. I never expected the class to be as interesting as it is and Elena has helped me develop a deeper interest in philosophy
